EVERY MOVE WATCHED.

AMERICAN ATTEMPT TO SUBDUGE THE PHILIPPINE INTERESTS ENGLAND.

NEW YORK, April 19.—A dispatch to the Herald from London says Gen. Lawton's withdrawal from the Philippine towns and territory lately occupied by his troops, and his reported statement that it would take fully 100,000 troops to establish permanent order in the islands, have aroused much interest in England, where every move in the attempt of the United States to subjugate the Philippines is watched most closely.

The London newspapers comment freely upon the effect in the United States of Gen. Lawton's declaration, and the predicament of the President in regard to the volunteers. The general tenor of the remarks is that the United States must go on with the work until the pacification of the archipelago is assured.

The Westminster Gazette says: "It is intrusive to have been through K. all, to follow the developments of American imperialism. The hot fit is at this moment being followed by the cold fit. The truth is, we suppose, that the task is found a more formidable one than the government expected, and that the President McKinley, who balks constantly in fear of reaction, shrinks from measures necessary to push it further. The American public, however, like our own, from the lack of intelligent anticipation of events before they occur. In the meantime do not suppose that a temporary withdrawal means abandonment of the Philippines, for even the anti-imperialist policy, as hitherto defined, is only the policy of going."

The Globe says: "It seems to have been assumed that nothing more than a military promenade would be required to produce permanent pacification in Luzon, if not throughout the whole group of islands. It is natural, therefore, that the sudden awakening from that unpleasant dream should gravely affect public opinion in the United States."

EXCHANGE OF PRISONERS.

Philippines Will Be Swapped for Spanish Captives.

MANILA, April 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Gen. Rios, Spanish commander in the Philippines, who will shortly leave the islands in obedience to orders from Madrid, is about to make a final effort to secure the liberation of the Spanish prisoners held by the insurgents. In pursuance of this object, Gen. Rios will send Col. Rosales and Col. Romulo through the lines from Malolos to offer, upon the authority of Gen. Otis, to release all of the Filipino prisoners in the hands of the Americans in exchange for the release of the Spanish prisoners. All of the Filipino prisoners it would be the Spanish penal colonies will also be released under the same agreement.

The Spanish newspaper, Oceania, says that Spain's native troops at Zamboanga, on the island of Mindanao, have been disbanded, but the men refuse to give up their arms, saying that they have further use for them.

COLORED FOR SERVICE.

PORTLAND (Or.), April 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Word has been received at Vancouver Barracks that two companies of the Twenty-fourth Infantry, colored, now at Fort Sherman, Idaho, have been ordered to proceed to San Francisco and sail for Manila.

DEWEY'S DISPATCH.

Navy Department Has It Put in Intelligible Form.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The Navy Department has requested a correction of the portions of Admiral Dewey's dispatch of yesterday which were not decipherable, and was able today to furnish the full text of the dispatch, which is as follows: "MANILA, April 18.—Secretary of the Navy, Washington, D. C.: The Yorktown visited Balor, Luzon, east coast of Luzon, P. I., April 12, for the purpose of resupplying and bringing away the Spanish forces, consisting of eighty soldiers, three officers and two priests, who were surrounded by 400 insurgents. Some of the insurgents were armed with Mauser rifles, as reported by natives. Lieut. E. J. Gentry, while making an examination of the mouth of the river in an armed boat, was ambushed, fired upon and captured. Fate unknown, as insurgents refused to communicate afterward. The following are missing: "The officer previously referred to, Chief Quartermaster W. Walton, Coxswain J. Ellsworth, Gunner's Mate E. J. Nygard, Sailmaker's Mate Vendig, Seamen W. E. Rynders and C. W. Woodbury, Apprentice D. W. A. Venville, J. Peterson, Ordinary Seaman F. Briscoe and O. B. McDonald, Landsmen L. T. Edwards, F. Anderson, J. Dillon and C. A. Morrissey. "Signed, 'DEWEY.' "The officials of the Navy Department are confident that such of the men of the Yorktown as escaped being killed outright in the first ambush will be well treated by the insurgents. "Some time ago the War Department made inquiry as to the number of American prisoners held by the Filipinos. In reply, Gen. Otis referred to these soldiers and said they were being fairly well treated by the insurgents, the supplying funds to defray the cost of their food. The reports made to the Navy Department by Paymaster Wilcox of Dewey's officers, who made a detailed account of Luzon from Manila to the north coast, described the condition of the Spanish officials who were held prisoners by the insurgents as comfortable. "In many cases, he said, the officials were only nominally in confinement, being allowed the liberty of the towns. The officials are hoped the Gilmore and his men who survived the ambushade will some day regain their liberty. The department has sent no word to Admiral Dewey to the course he shall pursue, believing, however, he is fully competent to deal with the situation, and resting secure in the assurance that he will spare no efforts to rescue Gilmore and his men, if they are alive.

PRIVATE MCLELLAN BURIED.

MARTINEZ, April 19.—Hugh McClellan, a private in Co. I, Fourteenth United States Infantry, who enlisted in 1862 and died of malaria, was buried today with military honors. The funeral was the largest ever known in this city. The procession being over two miles long.

DEWEY'S DISPATCH.

Navy Department Has It Put in Intelligible Form.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The Navy Department has requested a correction of the portions of Admiral Dewey's dispatch of yesterday which were not decipherable, and was able today to had several conferences with President McKinley in regard to the best way of governing the natives of the Philippines. They also sought to have their property restored to them, and applied for American citizenship. They say the President decided that their property should be returned to them. They are of the opinion that an independent government in the Philippines would not endure, but they think that the people can be intrusted with local self-government.

WARREN DIDN'T LEAVE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—The four batteries of the Sixth Artillery which were delayed on their way from the East, have arrived here and gone on board the transport Warren. Their baggage, however, is still somewhere along the railroad line, and the sailing of the vessel for Manila has been postponed another day.

COL. SMITH BURIED.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] NASHVILLE (Tenn.), April 19.—The remains of Col. W. C. Smith, who died of apoplexy at the head of his regiment, the First Tennessee, in the first battle with the Filipinos before Manila, were laid to rest in Mount Olivet Cemetery this afternoon.

LAWTON INVEIGLED.

WILD STORY SENT OUT TO CHEER THE FILIPINOS.

The American Line Was "Perilously Extended" and the Natives "Ambushed" It With the Result That a Large Force Was "Captured," So Says the Junta.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] LONDON, April 19.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The Filipino European Junta claims to have received a cablegram from Gen. Luna, "commanding the Manila district," direct from Manila, Friday, declaring that Gen. Lawton, "whose object was to proceed to Balor and to send three to Manila, or under the name of a transport, to Manila, was inveigled by the Junta into 'perilously' extending his line, with the result that the column, consisting of 140 officers and men, on reaching a place called Hinanganon, was ambushed by a large Filipino force, communication with the main force was severed and the entire force captured."

The Filipino advances further assert that Gen. Lawton, who was at Laguna de Bay, on hearing the news "retired to Manila, stating that he had been recalled by Maj.-Gen. Otis, on the ground that a native uprising in Manila was imminent."

The foregoing is said to be a separate affair from the disappearance of the boat's crew of the Yorktown, in the vicinity of Balor.

The Filipinos also claim that they have occupied the town of Zaboanga, in the southern part of the island of Mindanao, which was recently evacuated by the Spaniards, only a few of the latter remaining to hand over the place to the Americans. The Filipinos are said to have captured 7000 Mauser rifles, all the ammunition and several Spanish gunboats, which, the rebels say, they have navigated up the Rio Grande and out of reach of the Americans.

DOESN'T CREDIT IT.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] WASHINGTON, April 19.—The War Department does not credit the Filipino assertions contained in the dispatch, because it is believed Gen. Otis would have cabled any such occurrence. It is further stated that Lawton could not possibly have had in mind a junction with the Yorktown, as there is an impassable range of mountains between the points he traversed and the sea.

KEPT WHANGING AWAY.

Spaniards at Balor Fire on Gen. Rios's Envoy.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] BARCELONA, April 19.—[By Atlantic Cable.] El Diario, eulogizing the Spanish garrison, consisting of a captain, two lieutenants, a doctor and forty-eight men, who had been defending Balor against the Filipinos, says: "Gen. Rios recently sent Capt. Olmedo to order the garrison to evacuate, as Balor no longer belonged to Spain. Olmedo, after great difficulty, got within fifty meters of the house in which the Spaniards were fortified. He managed, however, to deliver his instructions, but the garrison simply continued to fire from its fortified quarters, and Capt. Olmedo was compelled to return to Manila without a reply."

WANTS NO VOLUNTEERS.

SIGNIFICANT CONFERENCE AT THE WHITE HOUSE YESTERDAY.

Gen. Otis's Estimate of His Needs in the Philippines Will Be Accepted—His Present Force Thought to Be Adequate.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] WASHINGTON, April 19.—A conference held at the White House today between the President, Secretaries Alger and Long and Adj.-Gen. Corbin, resulted in the confirmation of the original decision of the administration, to at present, refrain from availing itself of the authorization conferred by Congress, to organize a volunteer army of 35,000 soldiers, in addition to the present regular army.

Gen. Otis's latest cablegram, descriptive of the condition of the Philippine situation, was carefully considered, and it was concluded to accept his estimate of the military needs of the case, so that, as he has already indicated his present army is sufficient for the purposes he has in view, the decision is tantamount to a resolve to avoid recourse to the additional volunteers.

A cablegram was sent to Gen. Otis, however, calling for the necessity for withdrawing the State volunteers from the Philippines, again asking him whether he would need more men after he had received the reinforcements now on the way to Manila, or under orders to embark as soon as transportation can be secured. Otis now has a force believed to aggregate about 22,000 effective men.

Secretary Alger informed him that the troops now on the way would give him an army of about 30,000 men, after allowing for the return of the State volunteers. This is believed at the War Department to meet all the needs of the summer season. It is intended to withdraw one regiment from Porto Rico, and to send three regiments now in this country to the Philippines as soon as they can be equipped and transported there, though it is not believed that the organizations to be sent home first, and it is also stated that conditions are such in Cuba that it is quite probable some troops can be withdrawn from that island for service in the Philippines.

The matter of returning the volunteers was also discussed. The return of the volunteers to the United States as soon as the necessary transportation can be secured. To Gen. Otis has been left the selection of the organizations to be sent home first, and it is said he will follow the plan he has outlined to allow the men to come home first who have been longest in the Philippines.

FOURTEEN THOUSAND REGULARS.

They Will Take the Place of Volunteers at Manila.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] NEW YORK, April 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Tribune's Washington special says 14,000 regulars are to be sent to reinforce Gen. Otis at Manila as soon as the necessary marine transportation can be procured. The First Regiment, to be ordered will probably be the Seventh Artillery, of which two light batteries, C and M, have been ordered home from Porto Rico for the purpose. They will be sent at once to San Francisco to await an available transport. Thirteen heavy batteries of the regiment will be equipped as infantry, according to the present plans, although one of them may be used as

CHINESE RIOT.

Fresno Highbinders in a Bloody Combat.

Three Mongolians Dead and a Fourth Badly Wounded.

Hi Rapelje and Officer Morse Stop the Fighting.

Over Fifty Shots Fired by Yellow Assassins—Police Begins With Conviction of Tai Choy for Murder—Hatchet-men Imported.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] FRESNO, April 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A bloody riot broke out in Chinatown tonight, as the result of which three Chinese are lying dead at the morgue and a fourth is dying at the hospital. That a much larger number were not killed or wounded is remarkable, as over fifty shots were fired. Four Chinese highbinders were standing at one time on the corner of G and Tulare streets, firing their revolvers as fast as possible at the entrance of a stairway leading to a room over the store of the King Yick Company. A highbinder was captured in bed in this room after the affair was over.

Watchman Hi Rapelje of Evans and Sontag fame, witnessed the entire affair. He had just some on duty, at 6:30 p.m., when the trouble broke out. He heard a shot fired at the mouth of China alley, and ran up just in time to find six Chinese engaged in shooting. Three of them were on top of a rostrum man, and the fourth was on the ground when he came up with Officer Morse. Both officers drew pistols, as there was abundant evidence that other Chinese were going to take part in the affair.

Rapelje seized one of the men in the act of firing, and after beating him over the head with the butt of his pistol, disarmed him and handed him over to the custody of a bystander. A second assailant, who ran into the door of a gambling house, was shot from behind by an unknown person, and dropped in a doorway.

A third ran down to G street, with four other Chinese following and shooting at him. Three of these scattered at sight of the officers, but the fourth was cornered. Morse called on him to surrender, but he made a bolt, and the officer fired, wounding him in the back. This is the man who is now lying at the hospital, probably fatally wounded.

The present difficulty has been brewing for some weeks. It commenced with the conviction of Tai Choy, who yesterday removed to San Quentin to serve ten years for murder in the second degree. At the time the trial was at its most critical point, ten well-known highbinders arrived from San Francisco. The local tongs were sharply divided on the issue, and with the arrival of the hatchet-men a bloody fight has been expected.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

Two Chinese Mortally Wounded and One in Jail.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] FRESNO, April 19.—A bloody highbinder war that has been expected for some days broke out in Chinatown this evening, and as a result three Mongolians occupy slabs in the morgue, two more are at the County Hospital, mortally wounded, and one is safely behind the bars in the County Jail.

The officers have anticipated this outbreak for some time, as it was known that large numbers of hatchet-men had arrived here from San Francisco, but so cunning were their plans that not an officer was close enough to witness the opening of the battle.

The Chinese had decoyed the policemen on duty in the streets to various quarters, remote from the scene of their intended onslaught. Upon hearing the opening shot, Special Policeman Hi Rapelje, who was on duty at the alley north of Tulare street between F and G, where he saw two Chinese pumping lead into the body of a third Chinaman, rushed to the scene. Further up the alley were at least a dozen Chinamen, running around and blazing away at each other. As Rapelje ran up the alley, a Chinaman ran past him, pursued by a highbinder. The fugitive made for a doorway, but was dropped on the steps by a bullet from the highbinder's gun, which struck him in the head, killing him instantly. Rapelje captured the murderer. At the jail he gave his name as Wong Duck.

Policeman Morse, who was running to the scene of the shooting, saw a highbinder run up to a Chinaman named Chin Chi, who was standing in a doorway, and deliberately fire two shots at him, killing him instantly. The murderer then started to run, whereupon Morse ordered him to stop, but instead the highbinder turned and fired at Morse's head. As he continued to run, Morse fired. The ball penetrated the liver and kidneys, and he is now at the County Hospital and is not expected to live.

The fight is a factional one between the Bing Kung Tong and the Suey On Tong.

Discord Among Musicians.

CINCINNATI, April 19.—The Musicians' Protective Association, a labor union, has decided to boycott the coming Sangerfest in this city. No member of the association will be permitted to take any part in the Sangerfest. The reasons given for this action are that non-union labor has been employed in the erection of the Sangerfest building; that the Thomas Orchestra, a non-union organization, has been engaged, and that the executive committee of the fest has disregarded the propositions of the association to furnish musicians.

HIS HORSE JOSTLED.

TOD SLOAN LOSES A RACE WHICH HE WON.

Prince Soltykoff's Ecu d'Or came in first for the Tadworth Plate, but is disqualified.

THE JOCKEY NOT BLAMED.

NEVERTHELESS HE THINKS HE WAS BADLY TREATED.

Twelve Innings to a Tie at Cincinnati—Phillips Have a Walkover. Newport and Other Races. Ryan and Stitt.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

LONDON, April 19.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Sir Miller's three-year-old bay filly Korosko, ridden by Tod Sloan, won the Cophorn plate today. The betting was 4 to 1 against Korosko.

In the race for the Tadworth plate, Prince Soltykoff's four-year-old chestnut colt, Ecu d'Or, ridden by Sloan, finished first, but was disqualified on the charge of bumping and crossing. The race was given to the second horse, N. B. Mansfield's chestnut filly, Wylam.

The City and Suburban Handicap was won by W. Cooper's six-year-old chestnut horse New Haven II.

The stewards of the Jockey Club examined Sloan from blame in connection with the jostling. Ecu d'Or ran in blinkers, and behaved badly at the start. Sloan could not keep the horse straight, and the result was that he crossed several of his opponents, including Wylam, whose rider was forced to ease up.

SLOAN IS SORE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

LONDON, April 19.—This evening Sloan expressed the opinion that he had been unfairly treated in being disqualified, and said that he intended to consult his friends regarding the course he ought to follow.

SKETCH OF HIS LIFE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] OAKLAND, April 19.—Samuel Greeley Hilborn, ex-Congressman of the Third District of this State, was born in Minot, Androscoggin (then Cumberland) county, Me., December 9, 1834.

LIFE AND COTTON.

Attorney Says the Former is Cheaper in South Carolina.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] CHARLESTON (S. C.), April 19.—The argument in the Lake City case occupied both sessions of the United States Circuit Court here today. J. P. K. Bryan opened the case for the government. His address, which continued for four hours, was a terrible arraignment of the crime of lynching, and of the prisoners at the bar. During the course of it he declared that human life is cheaper in South Carolina than 4-cent cotton. He accused the defendants of the Lake City lynching and their friends of having mutilated public records in order to protect and shield the prisoners.

George S. Legare replied for the defense. He declared that President McKinley himself had laid the foundation for the crime by appointing a negro to the office at Lake City. He protested that the defendants were guilty, and he asked the witnesses for the prosecution most viciously.

MRS. PINKHAM'S WARNING TO WOMEN.

Neglect is the Forerunner of Misery and Suffering—A Grateful Husband Writes of His Wife's Recovery.

Nearly all the ill health of women is traceable to some derangement of the feminine organs. These derangements do not cure themselves, and neglect of the sensations resulting from them is only putting off trouble.

Pathetic stories are constantly coming to Mrs. Pinkham of women whose neglect has resulted in serious heart trouble and a whole train of woes. Here is the story of a woman who was helped by Mrs. Pinkham after other treatment failed:

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM.—It affords me very great pleasure to be able to state that I believe my wife owes her health to your medicine and good advice. For three years her health failed rapidly; she had heart trouble, often falling down in dizzy and fainting spells, shortness of breath, choking and smothering spells, bloating of the stomach, a dry cough, dyspeptic symptoms, meneses irregular, scanty, and of an unnatural color. She had been treated by physicians with but little benefit. She has taken your treatment according to your directions, and is better in every way. I am well pleased with the result of your treatment, and give you permission to use my letter for the benefit of others.

CHAR. H. and MRS. MAY BUTCHER, Fort Meyer, Va.

The healing and strengthening power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for all female ills is so well established that it needs no argument. For over twenty years it has been used by women with results that are truly wonderful.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all women who are puzzled about their health to write to her at Lynn, Mass., for advice. All such correspondence is seen by women only, and no charge is made.

DRANK POISONED MILK. Alleged Attempt to Murder a Chicago Coal Merchant's Daughter. [A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.] CHICAGO, April 19.—An attempt to murder Ida Peters, the nineteen-year-old daughter of William Peters, a wealthy North Side coal merchant, by placing poison in the milk which she drank for her luncheon is puzzling the police. The mystery in the case deepened when it was learned that Miss Peters is a niece of John Shoppe, the florist, against whom Henry Romann, a prisoner at the Police Station, is alleged to have planned murder.

The young woman says she was alone in her father's coal office when an old woman in black entered and asked permission to wash her hands. She was granted it. The lady is behind a screen, and close to it and hidden from view is a shelf on which Miss Peters kept her lunch, including a jar of milk. An hour later she started to her lunch. After drinking a glass of milk she noticed the taste was peculiar. Almost immediately she was taken violently ill. She was taken home and a doctor summoned. He said the girl will recover.

Both the young woman and her parents believe that the effort to take her life was planned by the aged woman who entered the office shortly before the girl drank the milk. The physician has notified the police that death is not probable.

Many of the sleeping orphans were awakened by the fire, and were rescued by passing them from the windows to a portico on the second floor, and then to the ground. The firemen worked for several hours to contain the damage to the home is estimated at $5000. The home contained inmates from nearly all of the central states. It is conducted by German Mennonites.

FATAL RIOTING IN SUBURBS.

GEN. WOOD'S OFFICERS ROIT A BAND OF BANDITS.Local Whitecaps Supposed to Be Operating at Marianno-New Consolidation of Departments to Be Effected.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

NEW YORK, April 19.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Havana says now that the Cuban army is on the point of melting away, and the political agitation, which the military assembly at Cerro was so long the center, has been effectively quieted, little remains to check a rapidly growing sense of public tranquillity throughout the island. In the last ten days much has been made of certain clashes between the police and other soldiers here in Havana and of various reported outbreaks of brigandage in this and other provinces, but these disturbances are purely of minor and accidental importance.

Two American soldiers have been killed in the rioting which had taken place in Vedado and other suburbs where United States troops are quartered. It has uniformly been found, however, that in cases where American soldiers have come in conflict with the police, the soldiers have been clearly to blame. There have been hundreds of instances in Havana in which drunken soldiers have resisted arrest and committed all sorts of offenses against the municipal law, and such conduct has been aggravated by the common feeling among the troops that the local authorities remain more or less skeptical. In an open and populous country like that around Havana, professional brigandage is impossible. One regiment of cavalry could stamp it out in a week. In Santiago province, the home of professional bandits for generations, the wild and inaccessible character of the back country lends itself to all forms of lawlessness.

At Holguin, two weeks ago, there was a serious outbreak of brigandage, but under Gen. Wood's skilful management disorder was suppressed in seventy-two hours by putting a few American officers at the head of the rural guard. The band of robbers was quickly brought to bay, eight bandits were killed and over forty captured. The rest came into Santiago and asked to be put in jail, offering at the same time to turn State's evidence against one another. No Cuban brigand cares to carry on his business in the face of a well-organized rural guard. The opinion is growing here that the crime committed at Marianno last Friday was work, not of robbers, but of local white caps, satisfying some private or political feud.

It is thought that a further consolidation of departments will be made in the eastern end of the island, Puerto Principe being joined with Santiago, under Gen. Wood.

Cardinal Philip Krementz, Archbishop of Cologne, is dying. He was born in Germany during the year 1819, and was created a cardinal in 1887.

A Buffalo, N. Y., dispatch says Henry L. and John H. Merch, for many years prominently identified with the mercantile profession, have filed a petition in bankruptcy, with unsecured debts of $134,000.

The Missouri River is rapidly rising at St. Joseph. The rise last night was seven-tenths of a foot. Families are moving out of the low lands opposite St. Joseph, fearing a repetition of the flood of 1881.

Fire broke out at Boise, Idaho, yesterday morning in the basement of Coffin & Northrop's hardware store. The store was wrecked, the main floor being burned through. The loss on the hardware is about $50,000, and the insurance $30,000.

The examination of Arthur Coyer, Jr., charged with conspiracy in attempting to kidnap Nicholas, the Premier, replying to a delegation from the Trades and Labor Congress at Ottawa, Ont., spoke favorably of the high character of the Chinese entering Canada, but said he was opposed to a tax on Japanese, whom he considered as progressive and allies of Great Britain.

A special to the Knoxville Journal and Press from Middletown, Ky., has made a contract with the Virginia Coal and Iron Company to operate a coal mine at Middletown to be operated by the Virginia Company. The two furnaces are now turning out 250 tons of iron per day.

A Calumet, Mich., dispatch says the Tamarack, Oceola, Tamarack, Jr., and Kearsarge copper mines were compelled to close Tuesday night on account of a strike of 250 men are out of work through the strike of 250 men at the mills. The men are not grumbling, being in sympathy with the mill men. The mill men are likely to demand a straight 10 per cent. raise before beginning work again.

Change of Civil Service Systems.

[ALBANY, (N. Y.) April 19.—Governor Roosevelt has signed a bill repealing the Civil Service Law, and is renegeing in effect the Civil Service law as it existed prior to 1887. The system of double examinations is abolished.]

RHEUMATISM CURED IN A DAY.

[Mr. E. A. Phillips, proprietor of the Clayton Hotel, Philadelphia, writes:]

"During the fall of 1895 I had a severe attack of rheumatism in my back which rendered me unable to walk and when I would lie down I could not get up without assistance. I procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and used it according to directions. It gave me instant relief, and by the following day I was able to walk anywhere. I have had no attack since. One application relieves the pain.—Adv.

On holidays in England two parties of men or boys will frequently get hold of opposite ends of a rope and pull on it, as a test of the strength of the two parties. They call it the "tug of war."

Many a hardworking man and woman in each day's toil, is pulling a "tug of war" with death for an antagonist. They call it rheumatism. They fail to take proper care of their health. When they suffer from indigestion or a slight bilious attack they "wear it out." After a while the digestive organs become so weak that the appetite leaves them, the liver active and the blood pure. It is the great blood-maker, flesh-builder and nerve tonic. Don't let a druggist impose on you with a more profitable substitute.

"I had a very severe pain in the small of my back, where my hips join on to my body, and it hurt so that I thought I was going to come apart," writes Wm. Z. Powers, Esq., of Erie Shadyside, Pa. "My doctor came and pronounced it rheumatism. He gave me a prescription, but I got no better, but worse. I purchased a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery from my druggist and commenced to use it. I began to improve at once and got well. Now I am in perfect health, and no longer suffer from rheumatism."

Nearly every disease known to doctors and the treatment is described in Doctor Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. One thousand and eight pages and over three hundred illustrations. France cloth binding ten cents extra. This book is a veritable medical library in one volume.

light artillery. It is not expected that the bulk of the large body of reinforcements can reach Manila until the end of the rainy season, which has just begun, but they will follow closely the departure from the Philippines of the volunteers.

With the regular troops already ordered and on the way to Manila, Gen. Otis will have an effective force of 21,728 men, in addition to recruits being sent every few days for regiments already ready in the Philippines. This force is to be raised to 35,000 men by the time aggressive operations can be pressed in the early autumn.

The volunteers to be returned number barely 12,000, many of whom are greatly debilitated so that the determination to send 14,000 able-bodied regulars to take their places is calculated to show the rebel leaders that the United States is terribly in earnest about meeting its responsibilities for preserving order and commanding respect throughout the archipelago.

TELLER'S TELLING.

He Says the Gold Democrats Will Support Republicanism.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
DENVER (Colo.), April 19.—Congressman John P. Shaffner and Senator Teller emphatically declared today for maintaining the Silver Republican organization, not only in Colorado, but throughout the Union. They say that the silver question will be a paramount issue in 1900.

Teller says the Gold Democrats will not be able to control the Democratic convention, and that, as in 1896, they will support the Republican candidates. He says that the Democratic convention will reaffirm the platform of 1896, and that the party must and will be allied with the Silver Republican party, and the Populist party, both of which must lend all their aid and influence to the great battle of 1900.

I cannot conceive of a political situation that will induce me to favor union with McKinley Republicans," says Senator Teller. "The Republican party is so thoroughly dominated by names, syndicates and combines that I have no hope of relief. I thoroughly believe that the continued administration of the government by the Republican party threatens the very existence of free government."

Teller expressed no preference as to candidates, but Shaffner suggests the names of Bryan and Towne. He says there is a complete Silver Republican organization in thirty-one States, and at least that number will be represented in the national convention.

Riotous Students Arrested.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 19.—Serious student riots have occurred at the University of Kiev. The rioters smashed the windows of the houses and the shops with stones. The troops were called out and dispersed the mob, injuring several persons and arresting 400 of those who took part in the disorders.

ARMY AND NAVY LEAGUE.

Will Close Its Affairs and Disband May 1.—[Useful Report.]

CHICAGO, April 19.—The Army and Navy League of this city will close its affairs and disband May 1. This action was decided on at a meeting of the executive committee. The league was organized on April 30, 1898, to furnish relief for soldiers returning from the war. Most of the funds were used in caring for the families of Illinois volunteers, although soldiers from other States were given food and shelter whenever occasion required.

The league has expended $47,000 in carrying on its work. Of this amount $24,000 was subscribed by Chicago business men, and $23,000 was advanced from the receipts of the Peace Jubilee ball. Over 100,000 destitute families of volunteers have been cared for.

RIVERSIDE COUNTY.

Military Company Prepared to Be Organized—[Regular Correspondence.]

RIVERSIDE, April 19.—[Regular Correspondence.] Maj. Prescott of Redlands will visit Riverside next Monday night to assist the boys of Co. M in the work of reorganization. The company has been drilling regularly for some time. Twenty-one volunteers have reported for duty, which, with the thirty-five National Guardsmen who remain of the old company, gives the command an assured membership of fifty-six. Capt. Robles, surgeon of the old Seventh Regiment, will be present Monday evening to examine applicants.

RIVERSIDE BREVIETTES.

The trial of Valen Vasquez, who is charged with the murder of a man who was lynched on the track and run over some weeks ago by a Santa Fe train, was commenced today in Judge Noyes's court. It took all day to secure nine jurors and another venue of fifteen was ordered. The District Attorney is conducting the prosecution and M. Estudillo is defending the prisoner.

Last week's orange shipments from Riverside amounted to 27,500 boxes, making the season's shipments exceed 200,000 boxes. The City Trustees have adopted plans and specifications for the improvement of Hidalgo place.

A. Wimperis, who was last week convicted of cruelty to animals for starving his horse, was today sentenced by Justice Mills to pay a fine of $30. Wimperis showed a receipt for $25 paid for two tons of hay, presumably for his erstwhile starved horse, which led the judge to impose a fine lighter than it would otherwise have been. The supervisors today accepted the bid of the Winchester Recorder, 19 cents per square, for publishing the delinquent tax list of the county. The returns of the school board election in Alamitos district, providing for the issue of $100 bonds, and for a tax levy to pay interest and principal of the same, were approved. An ordinance providing for the protection of pheasants was adopted. Lincoln Parish was appointed constable of Bergman judicial township.

The ladies of the Methodist Church are conducting a flower festival in the old Odd Fellows building that is being liberally patronized. A concert was given tonight, in connection with the festival.

PERRIS.

PERRIS, April 18.—[Regular Correspondence.] W. H. Payton tested his new well on his 23-acre tract today, and set a steady flow of 150 tons at this primary test. As all the wells here get better after pumping a month or so, the possibility of this well are unknown. The well is a ten-inch casing bored well 150 feet deep. Water was struck at twenty feet, and lowered only nine feet when delivering 150 tons.

FAKE FOOT RACE.

Santa Monica Sprinter Arrested for Alleged Fraud.

Police Officer Conley of San Diego arrived here yesterday to relieve Sheriff Hammel of a prisoner who has been in custody since 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The man in durance is Frank Huston, a sprinter from Santa Monica. Huston and his backer, a man named Johnson, were at San Diego last Sunday, where Huston was matched to run a race with a Basque named Aricho for stakes amounting to the sum of $245. The race came off according to programme, and that is what all the trouble is about. The San Diego sports allege that it was pre-arranged too much from the Santa Monica's point of view, and that they got away with the stakes through fraud. Huston and Johnson must have known that there was a great deal of dissatisfaction over the manner in which they horseshoed the $245, for they sprang to return to Los Angeles, instead of departing in a calm and dignified manner from the station at San Diego proper.

Finding themselves done out of their money, the San Diego sports took counsel with the officers of the law and swore to a complaint charging Huston and his backer with grand larceny. Officers trailed them to Old San Diego, but arrived there too late to prevent them from getting aboard the cars with their swag.

Baffled in their attempt to head off their desperadoes, the San Diegans wired the Chief of Police and the Sheriff at Los Angeles to apprehend the duo. Deputy Sheriff Werdin went to Santa Monica Tuesday morning, and after scouring the town, succeeded in rounding up Huston, but Johnson could not be found. The search was continued in this city for Johnson, both by the police and the Sheriff's officers, but he is still at large.

Huston will be taken back to San Diego this morning by Officer Conley to answer the charge pending against him there.

DANGEROUS GASOLINE.

Two More Fires Due to It—Organ Works Burned.

Two fires which occurred yesterday evening go to swell the long list of conflagrations charged up to gasoline. In one case the loss of property was considerable, and one man nearly lost his life in the flames. The other blaze resulted in the loss of a home.

At 5:30 o'clock the Los Angeles Pipe Organ Company lost its factory by fire. The building occupied by the organ makers was an old frame structure, formerly used as a dance hall, in the grounds known as the Old City Gardens, at Eighth and San Pedro streets. The proprietors of the organ works, A. H. Wytheim and Charles Conrad, were making some soldering. When a small gasoline oven used for heating the iron exploded and set fire to the surrounding inflammable material. Mr. Conrad ran out of the building immediately to turn in an alarm from the nearest box, while Mr. Wytheim gave his attention to saving the books and valuable papers.

When Wytheim reached the door with an armful of books he found the door jammed in such a manner that he had great difficulty in opening it. Before it yielded to his efforts the flames crawled so near him that they singed his mustache and eyebrows. He was also slightly burned about the head and face and barely had time to escape with his life.

The building and contents were destroyed. Among the stock was the foundation and material for a $7000 pipe organ in process of erection. The loss is estimated at $6000, insurance $4300. The second fire was a five-room cottage at No. 1313 Grove street, occupied by H. P. Jones and family. An alarm was turned in from box 58, corner of Washington and Bush streets. The department responded, but too late to save the house. The loss is $800. The fire originated from a gasoline stove.

WHAT AGUINALDO IS FIGHTING FOR.

Senator Hoar, W. J. Bryan, and other allies of Aguinaldo in the United States, frequently make the assertion that the Filipino chieftain and his adherents are "fighting for independence."

Mr. Hoar has had the monumental assurance to liken Aguinaldo to George Washington, and to assert that he and his motley supporters are contending for "the same principles as those for which our forefathers contended."

Aguinaldo and his crew are not fighting for independence. They are fighting for power. Let this fact be fully understood, from this time henceforward. Let us make no foolish mistake in this matter, which is of the most vital consequence as affecting the situation of affairs in the Philippines. Let us fully understand the conditions of the Philippine problem before attempting its solution.

As THE TIMES has heretofore shown, a large majority of the inhabitants of the Philippine Islands are in favor of peace, and of the exercise of American sovereignty over the islands. Aguinaldo and his warlike followers are in the minority. Their aim is, not to liberate the people of the islands, but to enslave them. They are contending for absolute power, which would, if their purposes could be accomplished, place the peaceable and industrious residents of the islands, who constitute the great majority, under a despotism far more oppressive than that of the Spanish, whose power has been overthrown by force of American arms. The peaceable and industrious Filipinos welcome and desire American control, because it will afford a guarantee of peace, of stable government, and of a larger measure of individual and political freedom than they could expect under any other government, native or foreign.

James Creelman, writing from Manila to the San Francisco Examiner, under date of March 20, states the situation very clearly, as follows:

"I have talked with the Spaniards who have escaped into our lines this week and they have all described a pitiless reign of terror under which the common people are robbed and driven about like slaves. While Aguinaldo and his ministers and generals live in almost incredible luxury. An English gentleman told me that he sat down to a luncheon of thirty-three courses in Aguinaldo's house. Meanwhile, thousands of Aguinaldo's countrymen are starving. The insurgent taxes amount almost to confiscation. Cab drivers from Manila are commissioned colonels. The former master now covers before his servant, glittering with gold lace. Bands of licensed thieves stalk through the great northern valleys, looting and destroying as they go. Old men, women and children are driven at the point of the sword to dig trenches for the lazy ruffians in uniform who safeguard this system of rapine.

"This is the thing our army is moving against, and these are the liberty-loving leaders for whose sake Senator Hoar and Mr. Carnegie and Mr. Cleveland would tear down the American flag.

Meanwhile, Aguinaldo struts about in his little fortified capital in the valley of the Rio Grande, and makes oriental speeches filled with false stories of his victories over the American forces, and bombastic references to liberty which is nowhere to be seen. The whole scene of this farce would be worthy of the pen of a humorist were it not for the fresh-made graves which lie along the lines of our trenches and the thousands of homeless native women and children who must suffer because Aguinaldo wants to wear a golden collar.

"The Tagalo leaders have already demonstrated their utter unfitness for self-government, and their incapacity to understand the purposes for which civilized governments are instituted. They have had almost undisputed control of the great island of Luzon—for the exception of Manila and Cavite—for about ten months. It is an indisputable fact, for which there are thousands of witnesses, that during this time the Tagalo government, and its officers everywhere have oppressed and bled the people without mercy.

"Since the outbreak of the present hostilities the so-called taxes have degenerated into mere confiscation. Vengeance is wreaked upon Spaniards and Spanish property through the interior. Spanish families, including women and children, have been kept in prison without accusation or trial, and their property confiscated.

"The government has been corrupt and tyrannical and has shown a ferocious spirit of vengeance against private persons. Aguinaldo and his friends have had a full opportunity of proving to the world and to the American people that they could give the inhabitants of Luzon something better than the Spanish government. But they have simply established a military despotism and none but the Tagalos have a voice in it. There is nothing republican, nothing free, nothing noble about it.

pressed and bled the people without mercy.

"Before our troops were forced to fire on the lawless band of insurgents who crossed our lines in spite of the challenge of our sentries, the commissioners appointed by Gen. Otis to confer with the Tagalo leaders tried in vain to discover some spirit of moderation and real patriotism. Col. Crowder, the judge-advocate of the Eighth Army Corps, says that the Tagalos were asked whether they would be satisfied with local self-government, under American sovereignty. Every conceivable proposition along these lines was presented. The attitude of the American commissioners was friendly and full of regard for the necessities, habits and traditions of the inhabitants. But the more generous tone of the Americans the more arrogant and antagonistic was the spirit of the Tagalos. They wanted everything. The whole archipelago must be given up to them absolutely, to be ruled or ruined by a military government, in choosing which none but a few Tagalo warriors had any voice. While these conferences were in progress Aguinaldo was hurrying on his preparations for war.

"The attack on our army was the direct and immediate result of speeches made in the Senate and editorials in American newspapers. Enormous sums of money have been spent by the agents of Aguinaldo in cabling these traitorous utterances to Hongkong, and they are everywhere quoted within the insurgent lines as a justification of shedding of American blood.

"Aguinaldo is not fighting for liberty. He is fighting for power. The Tagalos are the only natives of the Philippine Islands who have had intimate contact with the Spaniards. They have been corrupted. They want to rule the rest of the Philippines as the Spaniards ruled them. They have simply substituted native tyranny in the place of Spanish tyranny. To leave them in possession of the Philippine archipelago would mean a certain war of races. Those who have taken the deepest and kindest interest in the natives and who know them best all declare that progress and liberty would be impossible under a Tagalo government."

Mr. Creelman's statement of the situation is reproduced at length, because it gives a clear and comprehensive idea of the conditions which prevail in the Philippines. There is a widespread misconception. It is right and necessary that all misconceptions shall be corrected, and that all facts shall be clearly understood, in order that the American people may be enabled to decide intelligently the perplexing questions relating to the future of the Philippines; for in the last analysis, the American people themselves must solve this problem of the Orient.

The question of the permanent government of the Philippines is a question of the future, not of the present. The only issue at the present time is the restoration of order. Upon this question there should be no difference of opinion. Our duty is clear; our obligations are unmistakable. We cannot, in honor, turn backward in the path upon which we have set our feet. We cannot, in justice, abandon the people of the Philippines, whom we have liberated from Spanish oppression, to the more terrible fate of Tagalo despotism.

From the day when Dewey's guns destroyed the Spanish fleet in Manila Bay to the present, there has been no time when the American forces could have been withdrawn from the Philippines, without the bringing of consequences which would have been disastrous to the Filipinos themselves, and discreditable in the last degree to the United States. Every step thus far taken has been a logical necessity of the situation. The petty would-be critics of the administration, in keeping up their idle chatter, discredit only themselves.

Before they are through with this signed-article law, Mr. Morehouse and the other men who had a hand in its passage will probably come to the conclusion that they are not so cute as they thought they were.

THE HERALD'S ASSAULT ON NERO.

Our esteemed contemporary, the Herald, makes an attack on Nero, who has been dead for several years, which is utterly indefensible. It says, and its editor boldly signs the outrageous statement, that "Nero was an infamous tyrant." Now if called into court to prove this charge, we doubt if our esteemed contemporary could make out a case. All the witnesses against Mr. Nero are dead, or have moved away, the records, other than the histories, which are universally inaccurate, have been misplaced or destroyed and therefore to attempt to blacken the fair name of a once prominent citizen and official of Rome is but little short of constituting a dark and bloody deed.

This pursuit of men after death has but little to commend it to the minds of fair-minded people. While Mr. Nero, when Mayor of Rome, was accused of many atrocities, especially that of fiddling while his home town was in the midst of a holocaust, we submit that even a dead Mayor has a few rights which the living, in common decency, ought to respect; but when the editor of a free-silver newspaper deliberately signs his name to the charge that the late Mayor of Rome was "an infamous tyrant," the situation is truly appalling. When such things as this are permitted, no man living or dead is safe from the assaults of editors who have the reckless courage to sign the outgivings of their vindictive minds.

It is, perhaps, fortunate for the Herald and its editor that the Nero family is extinct, or there might be trouble; indeed it is not too much to say that were any of the gentlemen's folks living in these parts, the brave journalist who is so reckless in slinging charges around would at this writing be streaking it for the brush instead of sitting in his cozy sanctum and heaving language at men who are too dead to skin or to talk back.

But we do not propose to sit idly by and listen to assaults on the late resident of the ancient city on the Tiber without entering a violent and emphatic protest. Mr. Nero being dead, and dead so long that the lettering on his tombstone has been gnawed off by the teeth of time and even the tombstone itself consumed by the same hoary old rat of the centuries, we submit that Nero ought to be given a rest. While he may have slaughtered the innocents and outraged the fairest flowers of ancient Rome, while he may have been a devilish poor fiddler, and while he may have chuckled in riotous glee when he saw the city wrapped in flames and the people fleeing in terror to the suburbs, it isn't right nor fair, nor even decent, to pursue the gentleman in this reckless manner. And while we may feel like applauding the editor of the Herald for having the daring and bravado to sign his charge against Mr. Nero, it isn't right to jump him, we'll be dogoned if it is!

On Monday, THE TIMES drew attention to the fact that the owner of a restaurant on Spring street, much frequented by women and children, had applied to the Police Commissioners for a saloon license. We showed that the granting of such a license would be a step in the wrong direction, and quite at variance with the reform movement which is supposed to have been inaugurated by the new police board.

As we then mentioned, the restaurant man could not produce the sufficient amount of frontage in favor of his application. He was helped out by one of the officials, who owned property in the block, but he was still short of the necessary amount, and was told to rustle around and come again at the next meeting. At the regular session of the board Tuesday, the restaurant man still lacked the consent of the owners of much of the frontage on the block, but the Police Commissioners were evidently determined that he should have what he wanted, so they simply suspended the rules and granted the license. The restaurant keeper is now at liberty to open a regular bar at his place of business, if he wishes to do so, thus facilitating the consumption of alcoholic beverages among people who would not be willing to enter an ordinary saloon.

The new Police Commissioners may be sincere in their asserted intention to reform the liquor business in Los Angeles, but it must be confessed that a majority of the public find it very difficult to comprehend what the board is aiming at, just now.

A gentleman by the name of Webb, in the columns of our morning contemporary, says "It is time to call a halt;" that the Chicago German-Americans have started a "commendable movement;" that "the recent coalescence of the Democratic party in the East is causing a world of trouble to the Republican leaders;" he compares Mark Hanna, and Messrs. Croker and Platt of New York, to Boss Tweed; throws slurs at the "Christian enlightenment" we are spreading in the Philippines and makes invidious remarks about the Choctaw Indians. If this Mr. Webb is going to be permitted to break out in this way it is high time for the people to get vaccinated against him. By the way, who in — is Webb, any way?

When one observes the signed-article law in operation he begins to realize the fact that a majority of the late Legislature didn't know enough to pound sand, even if he may have thought otherwise previously.

The linking of editors and reporters can now commence, Mr. Morehouse. Come, get to work and let us see how much of a scrapper you are!

The Arkansas Legislature has passed a bill fining any woman wearing feathers on a hat, and punishing who

GAIL FERGUSON FUND CLOSED.

The monument to the first soldier of the Seventh California Volunteers to give his life to his country, Gail Ferguson, in the form of a home for his mother and young brothers and sisters, has been paid for to the last cent by the contribution of $10 by Banner Hive, No. 21, L.O.T.M., leaving a surplus of $4 in the hands of THE TIMES, which will be turned over to Mrs. Ferguson as an evidence of the good measure of patriotism and gratitude of the generous people of Los Angeles.

THE TIMES entered upon the work some months ago of raising a fund for the purchase of a home for this soldier's relatives, and, thanks to our good people, the little family is comfortably housed in a home of their own which is today free of debt.

On behalf of Mrs. Ferguson and her little ones, and on its own account, THE TIMES extends grateful thanks to those who have contributed to this splendid cause. Never was money better invested by a charitable people, and it is the heartfelt hope of this newspaper that to those who have given may kind fortune give much of health, wealth and happiness, and may the time never come to any of the contributors to this memorial to a dead soldier boy, that they shall need the consideration of the open-handed and big-hearted people of this city of open hands and kindly hearts.

There is nothing like living up to the signature law, so here goes: Mary Johnson's old blue hen has laid a egg. BILL JONES.

Pete Brown's brindle female pup has had an addition to her family. JAMES JORKINS.

Mrs. Maria Slimson, who lives down on the Brown place, has painted her barn a becoming red. HORACE BLOBS.

Jake Stepandeitch has had a tooth extracted, and it didn't hurt him a bit. B. B. BOTKINS.

Mary Pipwitch of Garvanza is visiting her friend, Miss Umpta, on Umpta avenue, and brought along her work. PERRY JOHNSON.

Sam Goodie's bay filly has had her front shoes removed and is being pastured on the Skinnum ranch for the summer. MARIA MILKUM.

John Henry Higgins, whose father got full of booze and busted the family stove the other day with an ax, came into town yesterday and bought a new stove. It cost $4.87, with trimmings. R. B. GLIDD.

Joe Blobs's oldest boy has a stone-bruise on his high foot, but his mother is doing well. C. D. LIBRARIAN.

Bust E. Bloward, the eminent lecturer, made a talk at the schoolhouse last evening on the subject of the Protomasmal Pustule of the purple puchritude in E flat, and a lovely time was had. W. A. GULDING.

The Board of Scrutinizers have dug a ditch alongside the road at the three-mile house, and there will be a celebration of the event next Chooseday. Come and bring your own grub. HORACE SEEKER.

Henry Joblots has quit irrigating and gone to suckling ducks on his ranch at Downey, so no more at present. JERRY G GIGLETS.

Gov. Rogers, of the State of Washington, recently sent the following pointed and sensible letter to one of the many persons who have persistently appealed to him, for some time past, to "demand" the immediate return from Manila of the volunteers from that State:

"Please stop and think for a moment. What influence do you suppose I have with President McKinley and Gen. Alger? The request of the Governor of South Dakota will not influence them in the slightest degree. Indeed, my opinion is that it will have a contrary effect. The boys will be sent home shortly. We all want them home, but there are better ways of effecting this result than by flying into the newspapers with what the administration counts as sassy letters."

Judas Iscariot was a — and a —. He — his master and ought to have been —. The signed-article law in California makes it impossible for us to fill out the above lines without getting fined or signing the statement, and as the writer has no $1000 to expend for the pleasure of lambasting Judas, the reader must supply the words that are missing. But Judas was a — just the same!

By perusing the columns of the signed-article newspapers today the California Legislature may begin to realize just how much of a blithering ass it was, collectively if not individually; and that isn't saying much for the individual members of the Legislature which, thank God, has adjourned.

Our esteemed contemporaries that demand the signature to a reporter's statement that John Johns's brindle heifer had a calf and that Mary Maginness is going to marry Terrence O'Toole look like a case of confluent smallpox, with the wagon from the pesthouse just coming over the hill.

Had there been no protracted debate over the ratification of the treaty of peace, how many of our dead soldier boys in the Philippines would be alive and well today? Here is an opportunity for a bit of interesting speculation, even though the question be unanswerable.

The Arkansas Legislature has passed a bill fining any woman wearing feathers on a hat, and punishing who ever sells feathers to be used on a hat. Here is a highly important matter that our Legislature overlooked. We ought to have an extra session at once in order that Arkansas may not be permitted to outdo California in damphoolishness.

Having been hissed in Spain, if Emma Nevada will come home we will make up for the lady's recent discomfort by applauding her to the echo; and it wouldn't take but a mighty few Yankee cheers to offset an army of Spanish hisses.

While our late censorious Legislature was about it, it ought to have decreed that all matter appearing in the newspapers must be printed in pica type and that the editors thereof should not be permitted to wear shirts while on duty.

Had the Bostonians who threw the tea overboard been as pusillanimous as are the newspapers of California that are obeying the fool law regarding the signing of articles, American liberty would have yet been a long way off.

It might be of interest to remember that the most severe things that have been said about public men in this State have been printed over the writer's signature, but Ambrose Bierce still lives.

A law has been passed in some of the States reducing sleeping-car rates, but so long as the porter has not been legislated upon we cannot anticipate any great amount of financial relief.

The Earl of Dunraven has just been elected a member of the City Council of Limerick, which goes to show that there is at least something the famous kicker can win.

UP IN KLONDIKE.

I am going up to Klondike sure this spring.

And see if I can dig up anything.

They say the country's rough.

But if I can get the stuff I'm on the string.

I'll take along a gun and a Pistol, too.

Some skeeter netting and a Retinue.

Of dogs, and pans, and picks.

For you've got to know the tricks Of that country where gold bricks Are nothing new.

I'll camp out in a snowbank.

Way up there.

Far away from my best girl—and Every cart.

Where the polar bears are growling And the Arctic wind is howling.

And the sketters are a-prowling Through the air.

I know I'll make a strike that's Out of sight.

In that country where they have Six months of night;

If the frigid air don't freeze me, Nor the grip or smallpox seize me, Nor those blamed mosquitoes tease me With their bite.

I'll have to eat whale blubber, I suppose.

And candles, and the good Lord Only knows

What will go down my craw.

But what I'll have to eat is raw.

And stew and fry and chow.

Up where it snows.

But when I've struck it rich, you bet I'll come

Back here to feel that

From business I'll retire.

When that fortune I acquire— You can bet I'll aspire!

To make things hum.

Tide Table.—The tides are placed in the order of occurrence, with their times on the first line, and heights on the second line of each day; a comparison of consecutive heights will indicate whether it is high or low water. The time used is Pacific Standard, 20th meridian W.; 0h is midnight, 12h is noon; all hours less than 12 are in the morning; all greater are in the afternoon, and when diminished by 12 give the usual reckoning; for instance, 10h 15 is 3 p.m. The data given are for San Diego. For San Pedro add 2 minutes to high water and subtract 5 minutes from low tide time. For Santa Monica add 4 minutes to high and subtract 4 minutes from low.

ALL ALONG THE LINE

The California Raisin-growers' Association, recently reorganized at Fresno, starts off in a way that is indicative of success. Now, if the members will stay with it and work for it the indication will be realized.

The Santa Fe Railway Company has let the contract for the construction of a freight platform 50 feet wide and 1000 feet long at San Diego. Evidently the company has faith in the growth of its business in that thriving city.

During the next two years hunters from abroad who get quail or ducks in San Bernardino county will have to stay in that county till they have eaten their meat. The Supervisors have prohibited shipping it out of the county.

Mrs. Locke, who was discovered to be a victim of smallpox in this city last Monday, visited at the home of Henry Hume, a deputy city engineer of Pasadena, last Thursday, and now the Hume family—and some others—are waiting to see what may happen to them.

The Herald says editorially that it is necessary for the members of its staff to comply with the Moreslaw law, "or seek other vocations." If writing for the Herald is a mere avocation for the members of the staff, it would be interesting to know something about their regular vocations.

There is rejoicing in Pasadena because the last remaining bacillus and shoe-fly of the ancient hoss-car line is to be exterminated from the electric system. When that is done, the only cause of boom days connected with the Pasadena trolley will be the impressive suite of waiting-rooms and offices in that oft-spoken monument to special providences—the Ward Block.

The Sacramento Bee has this to say of a scheme about which The Times expressed its opinion at the time it was introduced here: "The green trading stamp scheme, which was established about a year ago in most of the larger California towns, has apparently run its course, and is on the decline. The stores of the company in Sacramento, San Francisco and Oakland have been attacked by the Bee for nonpayment of an advertising contract, the Oakland Tribune has had an experience calling for similar action, and from the Stockton Mail, of Tuesday, it is learned that concerted action on the part of Stockton merchants has forced the company to close up its store in that town. The company is now working Australian towns as it worked the towns in this State last year." If the scheme had been chased to Australia long ago the people of California would have been better off today.

Thirteen carloads of asphalt are being shipped from Ventura to go to Winnipeg. This is the largest shipment in a long time.

Up to the close of business on Monday last there had been shipped out of the section a total of 8212 carloads of citrus fruit, since November 1.

Rev. Dr. Green, rector of St. Bartholomew's Church, New York, who has been in Pasadena for some time, with his family, five persons in all, will leave here in their private Wagner car Conductor, on Saturday morning for New York.

H. R. Bishop, a director of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific, who has been here for some time with his family, left last night for San Francisco. They travel in a private car.

George Wandling, Southern Pacific conductor, who handles the Pasadena and San Pedro train, is on duty again. He was ill for two weeks.

WANTED IN MISSOURI.

An Alleged Fugitive from Justice.

Arrested Here.

W. B. Storis, an alleged fugitive from justice, was arrested by Detective Flammer yesterday afternoon, and incarcerated in the City Jail pending the arrival of an officer from Saline county, Mo., to take him back to that place, where he is under arrest on two charges of embezzlement.

Storis was a guest at the Hotel Van Nuys, where he had been under surveillance since Tuesday evening. He left the hotel yesterday afternoon with the ostensible intention of leaving the city. Detective Flammer had instructions not to let him get away, so he overhauled him at Fourth and Spring streets, and conducted him to the Police Station to await the action of the Missouri authorities.

Storis betrayed no particular surprise at being taken into custody. In fact he rather seemed to expect it, but said he was perfectly willing to go back to meet the accusations resting against him. He has not evinced any intention, thus far, to stand upon formalities, and insist upon the issue of extradition papers.

The prisoner looks like a prosperous business man. He is about 36 years old and has a family in Missouri. Little is known about the specific charges against him there. The telegram upon which he was arrested merely stated that he was indicted March 19, last, on two charges of embezzlement. The amount in one case is stated at $1500, said to be the proceeds of fifty-two head of cattle which Storis is alleged to have unlawfully appropriated to his own use. The amount involved in the other case is unknown, but the charge is said to have arisen in connection with some deal in which the Chicago Live Stock and Commission Company was interested.

The prisoner is very reticent about the whole affair. At the moment when asked for a statement as to what he left Missouri February 2 and came to the Coast. He passed through Los Angeles several weeks ago on his way to San Francisco, where he remained till last Sunday, when he returned to Los Angeles. The police were not notified that he was wanted before Tuesday morning. They were then merely requested to locate him and keep him under surveillance until an officer arrived from Missouri with a warrant for his arrest. As soon as the detectives learned that he was at the Van Nuys they wired the information to the Sheriff of Saline county, Mo. He replied that an officer would start at once for Los Angeles to get him and that the officers here should not let him escape. It was only after learning that he was about to leave the city that Chief Glass gave orders to have him placed under arrest.

Storis registered at the Van Nuys as W. R. Smith, and the detectives had to resort to strategy to determine his identity. Some of his papers were gotten hold of surreptitiously, and thus all doubt as to his being the man wanted was laid at rest. He had sent his baggage to the depot and was about to leave for Williams, Ariz., when he was apprehended.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Preparations Making for a Number of Public Assemblies.

A communication was read from the Free Harbor Jubilee Committee, at the Chamber of Commerce meeting yesterday afternoon, asking that the chamber be thrown open Tuesday evening, April 25, for a public reception to be given the delegates and notables who will be in attendance at the jubilee and Commercial Congress.

The request was granted, and the secretary instructed to have the rooms decorated and to provide the usual refreshments.

A communication was also read from the same body asking that twenty-five delegates be appointed to represent the chamber at the congress. The president was requested to appoint the delegates.

JUBILEE NOTICE.

Business men and merchants are earnestly requested to make the day and night Jubilee decorations a success by using the national colors freely. Parties desiring their buildings or store fronts decorated will do best by engaging the well-known artist-decorator, Mr. Fred Parker, at room 218, Ballard Block.

GENERAL EASTERN MARKET

Grain and Produce.
 ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
 CHICAGO, April 19.—Wheat started easy response to lower cables and a com-

price of yesterday's liquidation. European news also seemed bullish, as several nations reported the situation promising to noon, trade was light and scalping continued. The market was not so bullish as the crop-killing machinery got working order again, and the bulls, who only had wheat, bought more. Toward the end of the session, sellers of corn the day were forced to hedge by buying the exception. Offerings became scarce, and the market was not so bullish as the early sales at fair losses. July was a premium of $\frac{1}{4}$ ¢ over May, and the wheat was a profit in carrying the latter. The water people bought heavily of May, and opened $\frac{1}{4}$ ¢ to $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ at 73 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢, improved by buying the exception, then became quiet. The market turned up, and at 74½¢. In July, which opened at 74½¢, rose to 76½¢ and closed at 76½¢. Aggregate receipts at prime export ports for the week were 100,000 bushels, the lowest since the latter part of a year ago. Atlantic export wheat and corn amounted to 1,880,000 bushels. Corn started weak and rallied to 74½¢, the highest since the middle of the year, but fell until near the close. The feeling among corn speculators was that plowing was ahead, and that much added to the surplus of corn. May closed at 74½¢. Oats were steadied by liquidation and buying by shippers on account of a heavy crop. Prices were steady, closed a shade higher. Rice, which was heavy to begin with, but improved to higher prices at the yards, and closed a shade higher. In the addition of May was not so much in evidence. May corn closed 74½¢ higher.

LANDMARKS CLUB.

Its Splendid Work of Preserving Our Historical Structures.

The Landmarks Club, an incorporated alliance of well-known men and women, to preserve the historic landmarks of Southern California—will have a public excursion to the mission of San Fernando next Saturday, April 22. The club's special train will leave the Arcade Depot at 1 p.m., and will arrive, returning at 5:30 p.m. A low fare has been secured. The hospitable San Fernandinos will bridge with conveyances the mile and a half from station to mission, and the club feels safe in promising a pleasant afternoon to all who care to share its outing.

The mission of San Fernando Rey de España was founded September 8, 1797, by Fray Fermín Francisco de Lasuen, Father Superior of the mission of Alta California, and successor to that great first missionary, Father Junipero Serra. The Franciscans never failed to elect the choicest sites in California; and the valley of San Fernando is no blemish on their choice. It throve, wonderfully, in the historic building there, on the 12th of January, 1847, Fremont signed the armistice which clinched the conquest of California by the United States. On the mission grant of fifty square leagues the first gold in California was found—a decade before Sutter's mill.

The Landmarks Club has a long lease on San Fernando Mission, and has already spent there over $2000 in repairs. The great monastery (24x66 ft.) has been repaired and it took 40,000 tiles, and otherwise repaired. The old church has also been given a temporary roof, to protect its adobe walls. Much is still to be done there, and the club cordially invites all who are interested to accompany it on this excursion and see how worthy of preservation and care these noble ruins are.

The work of the club at San Diego Mission is being pushed. U. S. Grant has given $50 for the work. George W. Marston $25, and other contributions are being made. In a few months the club hopes to have safeguarded what is left of the ruins of the Mother Mission.

HERE FOR THE JUBILEE.

CONTRACTOR HELDMAIER IN THE CITY TO TAKE PART.

Brig.-Gen. Wilson, United States Senator and Mayor Phelan Cannot Attend—No Schemes to Be Toleraled—Finishing Touches Today.

E. Heldmaier, the contractor for the breakwater at San Pedro, was in the city for a short time yesterday on his way from Chicago to San Pedro, and Superintendent Arthur E. Jones joined him here. Mr. Heldmaier will remain in this vicinity until after the harbor jubilee next week, and will be in person in charge of the work during the opening day. He will superintend the unloading of the first barge after President McKinley has given his necessary electric order direct from his library in the White House at Washington.

The Terms of the only railroad company which has thus far subscribed to the jubilee fund. The total amount of contributions at this time is nearly $700, which amount $6500 has been collected.

The Executive Committee meets at 3 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of putting the finishing touches to the event of next week. The Finance Committee meets at 1:30. The meetings of both committees will be the most important of the jubilee.

The Floral Committee desires that there be more entries for the various single events. The prizes for this feature of the jubilee are more or less unusually large and numerous, and the committee believes that the competition should be remarkably brisk. The entries for all other events are coming in faster than they can be handled, and it is expected that when the returns are all in it will be found that the singles have not been neglected.

The Executive Committee desires it to be understood that it has no interest in any way, shape or form with any of numerous schemes of more or less doubtful origin, which it is intended to tack to the coat-tails of the jubilee. It has come to the committee's notice, for instance, that a certain real estate man intend holding an auction of lots on the barbecue grounds on the afternoon of April 26. This effort will be suppressed by the committee if attempted.

Another enterprising firm has donated several thousand napkins for use during the barbecue. Each of the napkins bore a number which the holder would have been asked to retain in the interest of certain merchandise which was to have been distributed through a lottery arrangement. When the committee heard of the donation and its significance they refused the napkins and ordered new ones purchased.

The committee has again requested of the Supervisors not to allow any saloon within or close to the barbecue grounds to serve liquor. The Supervisors have refused to do so. The committee has again requested of the Supervisors not to allow any saloon within or close to the barbecue grounds to serve liquor. The Supervisors have refused to do so. The committee has again requested of the Supervisors not to allow any saloon within or close to the barbecue grounds to serve liquor. The Supervisors have refused to do so.

Very much to his regret, Brig.-Gen. John M. Wilson, chief of engineers of the United States army, will not be able to participate in the harbor jubilee. Gen. Wilson has been a staunch, faithful friend of San Pedro ever since the harbor controversy began many years ago. In a letter received today, dated Washington, April 13, the general writes as follows:

"I beg to acknowledge with sincere thanks your thoughtful courtesy in inviting me to be present at the Free Harbor Jubilee on April 25.

"I believe no one has shown a deeper interest in the great harbor work at San Pedro than myself, and I cordially congratulate the people of your beautiful city that operations upon the breakwater construction are about to commence.

"I greatly regret that my official duties will prevent my presence during the period of the jubilee, but it is my privilege to visit the Pacific Coast during the month of May, and I hope to inspect the site of the proposed harbor at San Pedro about May 10.

"Having perfect faith in the future growth, welfare and prosperity of Los Angeles I wish you every success in your jubilee."

United States Senator William B. Bate of Tennessee, who assisted in the upper house of Congress whenever his services were needed in Washington during the battle of the harbors, wires to his son-in-law, O. W. Childs, thanking him for the invitation to be present and participate in the jubilee festivities, but regretting that he cannot leave his home at National, Tenn., to be in Los Angeles next week.

Mayor James D. Phelan writes from San Francisco:

"Griffith J. Griffith, Chairman Committee on Invitations Free Harbor Jubilee, Los Angeles—Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your invitation to be present at the Free Harbor Jubilee at San Pedro April 26 and at Los Angeles April 27. I accept my thanks. I made an attempt last week to visit Los Angeles and San Diego, but the exigencies of public business prevented my doing so. I do not know that I will be free to leave the city on April 25, and therefore cannot make a definite promise. Should I, however, be able to leave the city it would afford me very great pleasure to accept and be with you. As soon as I determine this point I will telegraph."

An Affair of Foulards.

(A SHOWING OF RIVAL SCHOOLS.)

Nowhere is the rivalry between the Foulard printers of Alsace and those of America more strikingly illustrated than in our exhibit of these silken beauties.

Alsace, though German territory, is peopled with Frenchmen who have yet to find their equal among the Old World students of art-printing. Side by side with their products are those of American wits and fingers, as distinctly American as the others are French.

In Paris these American silks are looked upon with as much adoration as is manifested in New York for French products. Here at our counters you choose between them. The best of both schools of art await you. Exclusive in design, exquisite in coloring and moderate in price—much less than usual.

At 50c

Twilled foulard silks in navy blue, new blue and black grounds with white polka dots and large and small figures, 22 inches wide, 15 styles; equal to the 65c grade of other stores.

At 50c

Printed liberty satin foulards in new blue, cadet blue, navy blue, brown and green grounds with white figures in the new lace effects, stripes and neat figures, 20 inches wide, 14 styles; 75c would be a fair price.

At 75c

The well-known Cheney Bros.' satin striped, twilled foulard silks in blue, green, brown or black grounds with neat, white figures, 24 inches wide; same quality and patterns as sold for $1.00 about town.

At 75c

Cheney Bros.' heavy twilled foulard silks in black, blue, red or green grounds with neat white figures and polka dots, 24 inches wide; every yard well worth one dollar.
